

Arevik Publishing House

The Publishing House Arevik was founded in 1986. The basic field of activity is publication of children's and youth literature, belles-lettres, manuals and educational-methodic books.

Arevik is one of the leading companies in the publication of children's and youth literature in Armenia. It offers the reader a rich choice of colorful children's books with an original, distinctive design.

The books of fairy tales by the classics of Armenian and foreign literature as Charl Perro, Hans Christian Andersen, Brothers Grimm, Hovhannes Tumanyan, Ghazaros Aghayan, the anthologies of fairy tales of different nations as well, have always been the favorite books of Armenian children and have been periodically published. Arevik has published 212 books. Many books have been translated from Russian, English, Ukrainian and Polish.

Arevik regularly took part in textbook development competitions, repeatedly being announced the winner and have published a series of manuals and Teacher's books for public schools at the highest level.